FOR THE LOVE OF THE PEARL STREET MALL

No visit to Boulder is complete without a stroll down the world-famous Pearl Street Mall. This four-block walking mall is actually a city park! It is the historic heart of the city. Many of the buildings on the mall date back to the gold mining days of the 1880's and they have all been painstakingly restored to their original charm and elegance. In 2017, the mall celebrated its 40th anniversary and to this day is one of the most successful pedestrian malls in the country.

Teeming with visitors and locals alike on Colorado's signature sunny days, the mall has been described as the best place on the planet for people-watching and enjoying street entertainers. Buskers are plentiful year round and a variety of musicians compete for your ear on each of the four blocks of shade trees, fountains and flower gardens.

Kids can enjoy the natural play/interactive structures on each block of the mall - from the Weeping Rock on the 1100 block; the climbing rock play area on the 1200 block; the pop jet fountain on the 1300 block (summer months only) and the marble & brass animals on the 1400 block.

The mall is also home to shops, restaurants and art galleries including the world's biggest kite store, Colorado's largest kitchen & gourmet store, three bookstores and a co-op that is owned and run by local artists. Plus there are dozens of other "only in Boulder" venues – over 85 percent locally owned and operated! This amazing place is often called "Boulder's Living Room" by locals for the endless variety of events that take place year round. Go online to VisitDowntownBoulder.com for things to see and do, business listings, current hours of operation and more!

FOR THE LOVE OF THE EAST END

No visit to downtown Boulder would be complete without stepping off the bricks at 15th Street and heading east.

The East End district is for creative-spirits, foodies, adventure seekers & trend-setters. Located just steps off of the Pearl Street Mall, the East End encompasses seven blocks (from 15th to 21st streets) filled with delectable dining options and locally-owned shops filled with apparel, accessories and more.

This thriving Makers District features Todd Reed's incredible work space where his one-of-a-kind, hand-forged and finished jewelry made from recycled metals and sustainably-sourced raw and fancy-cut diamonds is crafted by master jewelers.

John Allen Woodward's retail space also houses his workshop where fine leather, silver and gold accessories such as signature belts, buckles, wallets, shoes, boots and bags are meticulously hand crafted.

Nearby neighbors include: Sherpani, whose unique and sustainable handbags, shoulder bags, travel bags and backpacks have been designed in Boulder for over a decade; Angie Star Jewelry whose pieces are a delicate balance between romantic and organic with subtle twists to traditional jewelry design; and By Elke who specializes in one-of-a-kind or small-run handmade leather & vintage canvas bags and accessories.

Check out some of the best shopping in Boulder (including many retailers who have opened up shop over the past year) and don't forget to come hungry! The East End is home to the highly acclaimed Frasca Food and Wine, as well as Foolish Craig's - featured on the Food Network's Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives to other delectable food options to satisfy the most discerning taste buds! Visit EastEndBoulder.com to learn more!

FOR THE LOVE OF THE WEST END

As you step off Pearl Street Mall at 11th Street and head west toward the Flatirons, you'll find yourself in the West End.

Just steps to the west of the Pearl Street Mall is the bustling and charming West End district from 11th to 8th streets. Known as a mecca for foodies, independent spirits and entrepreneurs, the West End is the place to be and to be seen. From local legends that have called the West End home for decades like Lolita's and Pasta Jay's to unique boutiques (Cedar & Hyde, Classic Facets and Farfel's Farm to name a few) and international outdoor brands (Fjallraven and Burton), this one-of-a-kind district is a great place to call home! (And, don't forget to check out the flying elephant at University Bikes while you're there.)

Did we mention how close you are to the mountains when out and about on the West End... less than a mile to be exact! Enjoy amazing views from the West End Tavern's rooftop deck and from the Museum of Boulder. So much to see/do/experience on the West End! Visit WestEndBoulder.com to learn more!

FOR THE LOVE OF SHOPPING

Fashion means a lot of different things to different people here in Boulder. There's young and hip. There's mature hip. There's classic chic and formal athletic. That means that when you're visiting, it's almost guaranteed that you'll find shops and boutiques with styles that are right up your alley. Throughout the district, you'll find nearly 150 places to give your credit cards a workout. Here in downtown over 80% of retail is locally owned and operated. Shopping local has never been easier. Visit LoveTheLocal.com to view current business hours and details on visiting safely.

FOR THE LOVE OF BOULDER

For the love of...a perfectly tailored shirt; a dinner out with friends; a colorful painting; shopping for hidden treasures. It's for the love of all these things that we invite you to come back to Boulder and support the local businesses that bring these loves into your life. Because without your help, not only will the love fade, but the businesses might too. Now's the time to stand up for what you love.

FOR THE LOVE OF DINING

You know that feeling when you're visiting a new town and you just want a local to give you a couple of great recommendations of where to eat? Well, the good news is that with nearly 100 options in downtown (95% of those locally owned and operated), you'd be hard-pressed to find even an average meal - honestly, you can't go wrong dining downtown! Restaurateurs who call the district home are innovative and inspired by fresh, local ingredients. No matter what you're in the mood for from gyros to sushi and everything in between, you'll find something to tantalize your taste buds. Visit LoveTheLocal.com to view current business hours and details on visiting safely.

FOR THE LOVE OF B♡ULDER

For the love of great chefs. For the love of cute bags. For the love of a new book from your favorite author. For the love of serious cocktails. For the love of all the things that make life wonderful, we invite you back to Boulder to shop, eat, play and stay. Enjoy the things you love, crave and covet and save the things that make life so sweet in the process.

VISUAL WOW!!!

For decades, artists and art lovers alike have been inspired by Boulder's natural beauty. Artistic expression can be found just about everywhere you look in the downtown district. From lush landscaping along the Pearl Street Mall and colorful storefronts that welcome visitors to outdoor sculptures that are front and center and also tucked in surprising places, Downtown Boulder embraces visual arts and celebrates artisans of all mediums.

Just two blocks south of the Pearl Street Mall is the Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art and just steps away there is the majestic Boulder Dushanbe Teahouse – one of the most artfully and intricately designed buildings in the world. On the center block of the Pearl Street Mall is the Boulder County Courthouse - an awe-inspiring example of Art Deco architecture.

While you're here, explore several exquisite art galleries and other handmade artistic treasures located throughout downtown. There are even paint and pottery studios for you to discover your hidden talents!

SHOPPING

like nowhere else

Downtown Boulder is heaven for those shoppers who are tired of the same boring stores you see in every suburban mall. Our open-air shopping enclave is bursting with hip shoe stores, apparel shops, jewelry boutiques and much more. These are retailers you will find nowhere else in Colorado – names like Cedar & Hyde, Island Farm, JONES + CO and Mountain Standard to name a few. And of course, there are local favorites like Peppercorn, Into the Wind, Art Source International and others that have made Downtown Boulder a shopping destination for decades.
